

Frank McHardy and The Whisky Store unveils The Island Treasures series:
the first gem being the Ledaig 30 year old

Singapore, July 18, 2023 - In collaboration with whisky legend Frank McHardy, The Whisky Store proudly spearheads the highly anticipated launch of an extraordinary limited-edition whisky, Ledaig 30 year old, part of the Island Treasure Series, on a grand sunset cruise.

Following the success of the highly rated Quaich Bar Islay Giant Series, The Island Treasures series is a celebration of spirits to its devoted enthusiasts as it is dedicated to the friends of Quaich Bar by the esteemed Frank McHardy. The first of the series, Ledaig 30 year old, is distilled at the iconic Tobermory distillery. This 42.2% (ABV) whisky is a true gem with only 233 bottles available. This whisky retails for $1298 at The Whisky Store. Subsequent release will include The Orkney 1999, an unnamed single malt from Orkney Island and The Trinidad 2008 rum on the other hand, originates from the island nation popularly known for rum distilling, Trinidad and Tobago.

Unlike typical Ledaig whiskies, this particular Island Treasures Ledaig 30 year old offers a distinct flavour profile with reduced peat and smoke. Instead, it delights the senses with fruity and sweet flavors. The nose is greeted by luscious fruit notes, evoking ripe peaches and tropical fruits. On the palate, indulge in soft fruity flavors, complemented by the delightful sweetness of marzipan, vanilla cream, and coconut. The finish is balanced, with a subtle dryness that enhances the overall sweetness of the whisky.

The journey of Ledaig has been marked by countless trials and triumphs, as emphasized by whisky maestro Frank McHardy himself: "Through careful wood management, Ledaig has overcome numerous challenges to earn its well-deserved reputation. Today, it garners respect and boasts a devoted following for its unique craftsmanship."

To introduce The Island Treasures Ledaig 30 year old to Singapore's whisky collectors, The Whisky Store will host an exclusive media tasting session. Attendees will have the privilege of experiencing The Island Treasure series on a yacht party alongside the whisky legend himself, Frank McHardy.

The Island Treasures Ledaig 30-year-old is now available for pre-order at The Whisky Store and other whisky bars under the Quaich Bar group.

About Frank McHardy

Frank McHardy knows whisky like no other and stands as an unparalleled figure in the industry with an illustrious career spanning over five decades. Having honed his expertise at renowned distilleries like Invergordon, Tamnavulin, Bruichladdich, Springbank, and Bushmills, he achieved a crowning moment by reviving the long-lost Glengyle Distillery. The complete Frank McHardy Series, comprising 14 bottles, is available at The Whisky Store for $6254.

About The Whisky Store

The Whisky Store began in 2005 as a humble retail kiosk in Tanglin Mall run by escapees from the corporate world, Khoon Hui and Joyce. Today, The Whisky Store is much more than a kiosk. We import a wide range of whiskies from boutique distilleries in Scotland, Ireland, South Africa and India, and independent bottlers and wholesalers in the United Kingdom, as well as other spirits, wines and liquors, many of which we hold in exclusive agency in Singapore. The retailer also distributes on a wholesale basis to other bars, country clubs, hotels, restaurants, corporations, and individuals who wish to purchase whiskies in volume. Since 2020, The Whisky Store has also embarked on an online retail store of whiskies and other spirits.
